

Purchasing and storing professional pesticides on farms

Compliance with pesticide safety and legalities • Design and manage an effective store
Protect yourself and your business

Designed for:

Individuals who want to make better decisions when planning to purchase and store pesticides on their farm

Entry requirement:

Able to demonstrate practical experience

Price:

£150 + VAT as part of a subscription to all e-learning courses at www.artistraining.com or £30 for access to this course only

CPD points:

2 BASIS points; 2 NRoSO points

Learning outcomes:

At the end of this course you will be able to:

- Purchase pesticides with confidence of not purchasing illegal pesticides
- Design a pesticide store for the safe storage of chemicals
- Store pesticides on your farm to the standards of the chemicals regulation division of the Health and Safety Executive
- Carry out good store management
- Maintain records relating to pesticide use and disposal

Content:

- Background to pesticides and understanding what they are
- Purchasing pesticides and how to avoid purchasing illegal pesticides
- Law and guidance to storing pesticides safely
- Pesticide stores
 - Building a pesticide store
 - The types of store available
 - Deciding the best location of the store
 - Designing and constructing a pesticide store in compliance with relevant legislation
- Dealing with spillages and disposal of pesticide related waste
- Store management and record keeping and the importance of getting it right

Trainer:

Dr Aliona Jones. Business Development Co-ordinator, BASIS

Farm Business

For more information or to book online go to www.artistraining.com
01223 342444 info@artistraining.com @ARTIStraining